The Cattle Industry Development Council Regulation of the Farming and Fishing Industries Development Act requires dealers and agents buying cattle to collect the CIDC levy ($5/head check-off) from the seller of the cattle and remit it to the CIDC. The regulation states that the distributor of the cattle (or first person who purchases the cattle from the producer), including livestock dealers, public sale yards or slaughter house must collect and remit the levy to the council, on the sale or slaughter of cattle in British Columbia. The levy rate (check-off) is $5 per head of cattle, plus 5% gst .

This is to certify that the foregoing is a true and correct statement of the number of cattle handled during the month of _____ and a true accounting of all monies deducted in accordance with the Farming and Fishing Industries Development Act.
